

National Disability Institute Social Media User Agreement

This Social Media User Agreement governs all official National Disability Institute (NDI) accounts on social media platforms. Please read this Agreement carefully. This Agreement may be modified at any time. By interacting with any of NDI's social media accounts, you agree to comply with these rules and any future revisions.

You can access this Agreement at any time at:

realeconomicimpact.org/assets/Site_18/files/Social-Media-Agreement.pdf

Your failure to follow these rules may result in suspension or termination of your access to NDI's social media accounts without notice.

Comments Submitted on Social Media Accounts

NDI reserves the right to review, edit or delete any material submitted as a comment on its social media accounts. When possible, the NDI team will remove personally identifiable information or delete comments to protect visitors' identities. Visitors should not include identifiable information (ex. an email address, Social Security Number or phone number) in their comments.

While we encourage submissions from all viewpoints, we ask that all participants agree to the following Terms of Participation.

Please post only questions or comments relevant to NDI and the topics discussed.

Refrain from posting comments that contain threats, obscenities and any other material that would violate the law if published, such as abusive, defamatory or sexually explicit material.

Submissions containing the following will be deleted or hidden:

- Obscene or threatening language or discrimination (hate speech) based on race, sex, gender, sexuality, religion, national origin, age or disability
- Links to commercial services or products
- Solicitations for donations through fundraising sites (ex. GoFundMe, Kickstarter, etc.)
- Any personal or sensitive information (ex. phone numbers, email or postal addresses)
- Any endorsement of political parties, candidates or groups
- Any posts or links intended to influence (lobby) a Member of Congress or government official on legislation or an appropriation (including petitions)

If your original post includes a resource for people with disabilities, NDI may ask you to change your comment by removing any part that violates the Terms of Participation. If we remove your post, please do not repost as your post was likely in violation of these guidelines.

Although NDI will monitor all social media accounts on a regular basis, comments submitted after regular business hours, Monday through Friday, or on weekends will be reviewed on the next business day.

Comments by Others Are Not Endorsed

NDI does not necessarily endorse, support, verify or agree with the comments, opinions or statements posted on its social media accounts. Any online information or material, including advice and opinions, are the views and responsibility of those making the comments. By submitting or posting a comment, you agree that NDI is not responsible, and shall have no liability to you, with respect to this information, even if it is defamatory, offensive or illicit.

The Right to Report Threatening Comments

NDI reserves the right to report any comments that imply harm or imminent danger to yourself or others. By submitting or posting a comment, you accept that NDI has the right to contact the appropriate authorities to report any suspicious activities, threats or behaviors.

External Links

NDI reserves the right to remove any links that pose or appear to pose a security threat to the site and other users. NDI does not necessarily endorse links to other websites or the information, products or services contained therein. Users are advised to click on links posted by other users at their own risk.

Official Sources of Information

NDI may post links to official government information or statements on its social media accounts. However, NDI should not be considered a primary source for this information.

Questions or Concerns?

If you have questions about NDI's use of social media or these terms, please contact the NDI Communications Department.

Contact:

Katie Auchenbach
Communications Specialist
kauchenbach@ndi-inc.org